The NHS Manchester Resilience Hub has been established in response to the Manchester Arena attack.

It has been set up to coordinate the care and support for children, young people and adults whose mental health and/or emotional wellbeing has been affected. The Hub is based in Greater Manchester but is for everyone who was affected, wherever they may live. The Manchester Arena attack was a traumatic event which we know can cause severe emotional shock. The Hub can offer phone-based advice, support and information and make calls on your behalf if you are struggling to get the help you need.

The Hub is for: everyone who has been directly affected by the incident family members who have been affected professionals who have been affected professionals seeking clinical advice about their service users For more information, please visit <http://www.penninecare.nhs.uk/mcrhub>

You can contact The Hub by phone or email:
